

Calibration uses the first 30 min of each shared-source recording.

Evaluation recordings are separate and never used for training or threshold selection.